

Inhouse-Seminars for the German Pricing Regulation System for Public Purchase

You are looking for further training concerning price audits and German pricing regulation system for public purchase?

You want to be prepared for price audits and know possible risks and chances?

Individualized seminars and workshops will help you to better understand the German regulation system for pricing for public purchase (VO PR 30/53 and LSP)

You learn what is relevant about

- basics of Pricing Regulation for Public Purchase (VO PR 30/53 and LSP)
- the use of the market related price-types referring to the price regulation norms
- cost elements and cost-based price regulation norms referring to the LSP
- process of price-audits with their risks and chances
- checklist for the preparation of price audits
- possible ways to question decisions of price auditors
- pricing regulation in other countries
- news about a potential reformation of the existing regulation norms in Germany

The contents of the seminars are adapted to the individual situation of your company and employees.

Therefore a mainly business focused perspective is used.

Your advantage:

Building up company internal knowhow

Seminar venue:

Your company

Focus group:

CEOs, CFOs, COOs, project managers, sales managers, accountants

No prior knowledge is required – the seminar adapts to your individual knowledge.

Your Trainer:

The lecturer is an expert in the topic of cost accounting and the price regulation system in Germany. He has already published several scientific as well as practical articles in highly ranked German and American journals.

Your Contact:

Michael Singer – Consulting and Seminars for Price Audits and the German Pricing Regulation System for Public Purchase